FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1887.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1888,

JAMES G. BLAINE,
OF MAINE.

Subject to the decision of the Republican National Convention.

"We always have the American flag above us and not below us."—James G. Blaine.

IS IT PRESIDENTIAL IMPERTINENCE?

The Democratic politicians do wish that the President would let the tariff question alone. They think that their party has enough to contend with in the line of internal dissensions without having the administration framing a tariff measure and trying to force it upon the Democratic Congressmen. President Cleveland's attempt at influencing legislation at the last session of Congress was not a success, and they think that the party can ill afford to have him enter the lists again this year. It is figured out that as the Democratic majority in the House is now only fifteen, Randall will have to use but a small portion of his protection followers in voting with the Republicans, to defeat any pet free trade measure put forward by the administration.

ONE OF THE COOLEST.

One of the coolest things in all political history is the Democratic claim that the excellent business outlook is due to the Democratic administration. The fact is that the entire legislation relating to fiscal interests is the work of the Republican party. Not the slightest change has been made in the tariff, the internal revenue, or the sources of miscellaneous revenue. The Democrats in their platform promised a lot of "reforms," and prosperity has been the result of their not doing what they agreed to.

The Exposition now open in Atlanta, continuing twelve days, will, it is said, be the most imposing display of Southern products and manufactures ever known, and will give a just idea of the progress made in the interval. The coal and iron cities, such as Birmingham, Anniston, Sheffield, etc., are to make collective exhibitions of woods, minerals and other products. The principal railroads do the same, and here again the best foot is put foremost. Thirty are to make collective exhibits of all their products. The managers promise that the Northern capitalists will find under the roof of the Exposition more of Southern riches than were ever brought together before. All signs are for a very successful Fair. President Cleveland's three days' visit is expected to draw the greatest crowd of Southerners ever seen. An effort has been made to induce Sherman's veterans to revisit the scenes of their old triumphs, and they will be able to go from Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis at one-cent rates. There are to be sham battles, illuminations and other popular features in plenty.

Mrs. J. W. Mackay will soon own one of the most beautiful mantles in the world. It will be made of the breasts of birds of paradise. The breast is about four inches broad and about six long at the greatest length, and nearly heart-shaped; the upper portion is about an inch and a half deep, and is like the finest plush, in color a deep seal-brown, shading off to a pinky terra cotta. About 500 birds will be necessary to furnish enough for the cloak, and two skillful marksmen are now in New Guinea engaged in this wholesale slaughter.

Within recent weeks an amusing story has gone the rounds of the press, to the effect that The American Magazine was to be conducted for the benefit of its contributors, who would receive stock in payment for their literary work. The paragraph has called forth much pity for the editor of a magazine so managed; wasted tears, as the story never had any foundation and is wholly untrue.

Next to Mt. St. Elias in Alaska, Mt. Tacoma is the loftiest peak in the United States. Its ascent is very difficult, and the scenery is extremely wild. An illustrated account of a climb to the highest attainable point will be given by C. D. Hendrickson in the November American Magazine.

The English cutter Galatea sailed from New York, Tuesday, with Lieutenant Henn and wife on board, for England. Henn left his racing spurs and expressed his determination to return next year.

It is said the suits which Attorney-General Garland brought against the Bell telephone patents and has lost have cost the Government $100,000.

The Western Union's Condition.

New York, October, 12.—The main facts contained in the annual report of the Western Union are: Gross earnings for the year ending June 30th, $17,191,909; operating expenses, $13,154,638; net earnings, $4,037,281; interest and sinking fund, $522,065; balance, $8,504,216; dividends, $811,864; surplus from year's business, $2,692,352. The last feature is a vital one, as it compares with the deficit in meeting the charges last year of $14,169. The report concludes by saying: "The facilities and advantages afforded by the addition of the Baltimore and Ohio system it is confidently believed will largely increase the revenues of the company. This acquisition and others made since the close of the fiscal year and not included in the report will swell the company's plant to about 102,000 miles of lines and over 580,000 miles of wire." The contract with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad was ratified, and the issue of $5,000,000 of new stock was authorized.

Mrs. Ralston Sues the Sharon Estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12.—Lizzie F. Ralston, widow of the once noted millionaire, W. C. Ralston, has again instituted suit against Frederick W. Sharon and Frank G. Newland, as Trustees of the late William Sharon's estate. She demands an accounting of all the partnership business and transactions of W. C. Ralston and William Sharon, and prays for an order of Court directing the sale of real estate in such quantities as may be found necessary to pay her claims. Sixty-five pieces of property are mentioned in the cause filed to-day. Their value runs up into millions. The list comprises the Palace and Grand Hotels.

A Monster Beet-Sugar Corporation.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12.—Claus Spreckles, representing the company, to-day filed articles of incorporation of a company that will engage in the beet-sugar industry. The company will commence operations with a plant having a capacity of making 40 tons of sugar per day from 300 tons of beets, which will require a product of 7,200 acres. If the project is successful it is its purpose to establish beet farms on the coast and supply the United States with sugar.

The official opening of the evidence filed by Mr. Thoebe, the Labor candidate who claims that he defeated Carlisle, sets at rest the rumors that he had given up his contest in the House. Thoebe says that his evidence clearly shows that he was elected, and that the certificate was wrongfully given to Carlisle. The Free-Traders are much disturbed by this evidence that Thoebe proposes to appeal to the House for justice. What makes them more disturbed is the fact that it puts Carlisle in a position that may injuriously affect his re-election to the Speakership, as it has never been regarded as just the thing to elect to the Speakership any member whose seat was contested. The probability, however, is that they will elect Carlisle Speaker in spite of this. If they do, then of course the Committee on Elections, who will sit on this case, cannot be appointed by Speaker Carlisle, but must be elected by the House. And when the House should get started in electing committees, there is a probability that they would go on and elect a Ways and Means Committee, which would not block the majority as this committee did in the last House.

John Roach is dead, but his words follow him, and are a sufficient monument to his ability and integrity. The present Democratic administration which lent its power to crush the firm of Mr. Roach, and blighted the products of his yards, finds that the truth will out; that the Roach cruizers are up to the requirements of the contracts; in fact, that the Boston, the latest war-ship completed, has developed 700 more horse-power than was called for by the contract, and it is admitted that the steering capacity of the vessel is remarkable.

Wheat Wasting.

The collapsed wheat ring are using every endeavor to ship off some of their surplus wheat, and on Saturday last one of the members was in negotiation for a fleet of thirty ships at a certain rate, to load at once for the United Kingdom. The trouble lies in the fact that in the warehouses, and especially at Port Costa, the wheat has been stored for such a length of time that the depredations of the weevil are becoming serious. If a large quantity of wheat is not shipped immediately it will have to be dumped into the bay, for it will be useless, even for local milling purposes. The market is on the down grade both for wheat and barley, and little business is being done in either.—S. F. Post.

Queen Victoria has the largest book ever bound. It measures eighteen inches across the back and weighs over thirty pounds. It is the volume with the Jubilee addresses of congratulation from the Habitants of the Primrose League.

The Carson papers are jubilant over the fact that Reno turned out en masse on the last day of the Ormsby Fair. Fraternal fellowship is once more firmly established between the two cities.—Elko Independent.

THE FAIRS.

The Carson Appeal, of Wednesday, says:

This year Nevada has launched out into the scheme of holding a State Fair and several District Fairs, all assisted by State aid. In this, Nevada is but following the leads of other States, and she has already demonstrated the wisdom of this plan.

There is a good deal of talk about changing the location of the State Fair to Carson. There is no reason why this should be done. Our District Fair is all we want, and all we can handle. Instead of trying to get the State Fair away from Reno, let us make our District Fair better than the Reno Fair, and get the crowd.

For nine years the people of Reno struggled hard with its State Fair in the face of opposition, neglect and even ridicule. Reno made a plucky fight for the State Fair and won. She should enjoy the fruits of her victory.

The main talk against the State Fair arises from the mismanagement of the present year. The outrageous prices of hay, the display of ignorance in the awards, and the manifest unfairness of the racing decisions, ought not to be made a reason for attacking the State Fair. The cause of the trouble was simply a man trying to run a number of things he knew nothing about. Mr. Powning is simply inexperienced in management of Fairs, but was anxious to demonstrate that he could do certain things better than anybody else. But then Powning is always bobbing up in this way, and always bobbing down again in a state of collapse. He ought never to have been allowed to act as President of the State Fair and jeopardize the future of so important a branch of our State's prosperity. He knows nothing about agriculture, nothing about the points of horses and cattle, nothing of turf rules and nothing of finance, yet he assays to rule all these departments. The purchase of new Fair grounds with the money given by the State was bad, for it will simply saddle a debt on the Association which will require future legislative clemency to liquidate. The bill by which the money was appropriated expressly states that a portion shall be used "for improving the grounds and paying premiums." The grounds have not been improved, and even the simple matter of providing suitable drinking troughs for the stock was neglected, and stock was obliged to drink out of mud holes. All this caused a lot of kicking, and the racing decisions so incensed several horsemen that they left the track, vowing never to return.

All this, however will blow over in twelve months, and with some level-headed practical man at the head of the Association lost ground will be recovered. Powning will resign the Presidency, and if he does not, the Board of Directors will see the necessity of a change, and make the proper provision. We are aware of the fact that a good deal of the truth spoken in this article will be unpalatable to certain parties. It is the truth all the same and we hold that there is nothing gained in covering up facts, the existence of which every one recognizes. We should treat such matters as we treat the sick, first locate the trouble and then proceed to eradicate it.

YOU COULDN'T EXPECT IT.—The Reno JOURNAL says: "Senator Stewart did not take as much interest in this year's State and District Fairs as he did last year."

Why, General, you couldn't expect him to. Senator Stewart got what he wanted from Nevada last year, and he couldn't gain anything by taking an interest in State and District Fairs this year.—Silver State.

Governor Stevenson, of Idaho Territory, in his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior, bitterly denounces the scheme to annex part of Idaho to Nevada, and among other assertions says the scheme "was born of legal jealousy and advocated by political jobbers and tricksters." Of course the Governor does not include any Nevada politicians in the above category.—Carson Tribune.

With much sorrow the Tribune is compelled to state that Major J. W. Haines, the well known and much esteemed Douglas county rancher, is considered almost beyond medical aid. It is hard after a long life of arduous business toil and, just when a fortune has been secured, that a man should be taken off, but so it is.—Carson Tribune.

T. D. Page, who has been to Reno to attend a meeting of the Nevada Cattle Association, returned to Eureka yesterday. He says that Reno is very lively, and that the Fair was a success.—Sentinel.

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Riverside Avenue Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule. Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State, and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools. The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes.
